

Jonah 4:5-11

Angry at God's Compassion

Jonah's anger at God's compassion was wrong.

1. Jonah is reacting to the true nature of God. (4:1-4)
Phil. 2:3-4

2. Jonah is in self-denial. (4:5-9)
1 Sam. 18:6, Ps. 43:4

3. God reveals Jonah's true character. (4:10-11)
1 Cor. 3:6-7, Job 1:21, Ex. 33:19

Final Application
Mk. 2:17, Mt. 20:15, 1 Jn 1:9, Rom. 10:9

Who is God? Psalm 103:6-19

Jonah 4:5-11

Angry at God's Compassion

Jonah's anger at God's compassion was wrong.

1. Jonah is reacting to the true nature of God. (4:1-4)
Phil. 2:3-4

2. Jonah is in self-denial. (4:5-9)
1 Sam. 18:6, Ps. 43:4

3. God reveals Jonah's true character. (4:10-11)
1 Cor. 3:6-7, Job 1:21, Ex. 33:19

Final Application
Mk. 2:17, Mt. 20:15, 1 Jn 1:9, Rom. 10:9

Who is God? Psalm 103:6-19

Reflection Questions

1. How would you define a reaction versus a response?
2. What is Jonah's default reaction to God's compassion?
3. What is your default reaction to God's compassion? What would a response be?
4. If God revealed your heart for the lost, what would it look like?
5. Is there anyone that stands out as difficult to be compassionate towards? Be specific.
6. Who can you pray for? Who can you show compassion to and how? Be specific.

Reflection Questions

1. How would you define a reaction versus a response?
2. What is Jonah's default reaction to God's compassion?
3. What is your default reaction to God's compassion? What would a response be?
4. If God revealed your heart for the lost, what would it look like?
5. Is there anyone that stands out as difficult to be compassionate towards? Be specific.
6. Who can you pray for? Who can you show compassion to and how? Be specific.