

Jesus The paradigm for those who will follow – Luke 3:21-23

The beginning of Jesus' ministry was marked by the unique experience of expressing His orientation and commitment to the Father's purpose through baptism. By being filled with the Holy Spirit and hearing His Father's affirming voice. Though Jesus is one of a kind, he nonetheless is the paradigm for those that choose to follow Him.

Baptized

Though Jesus didn't need to repent he submitted Himself to baptism as the way of communicating His orientation and commitment towards the Father's purposes

"...and was praying"

Jesus' relationship with the Father

Heavens open

A significant time when God communicates something important

- Isa. 64:1; Ezek. 1:1, 1 John 1:51; Acts 7:56; 10:11

Holy Spirit descends

- John 1:31-34; Luke 4:1, 14-15, 18-19; Acts 10:37-38

"You are my Beloved Son; with YOU I am well pleased"

- Isa. 42:1; Col 1:15-20; Heb 1:1-3

From the episode of Jesus' baptism, anointing and affirming love of the Father we can find that we too are called to orient and commit ourselves to God's purposes, we will be empowered to live it out through the power of the Holy Spirit and are called into the very same relationship Jesus had with the Father.

Jude 1:1 – "To those who are called, beloved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ"

Jesus The paradigm for those who will follow – Luke 3:21-23

The beginning of Jesus' ministry was marked by the unique experience of expressing His orientation and commitment to the Father's purpose through baptism. By being filled with the Holy Spirit and hearing His Father's affirming voice. Though Jesus is one of a kind, he nonetheless is the paradigm for those that choose to follow Him.

Baptized

Though Jesus didn't need to repent he submitted Himself to baptism as the way of communicating His orientation and commitment towards the Father's purposes

"...and was praying"

Jesus' relationship with the Father

Heavens open

A significant time when God communicates something important

- Isa. 64:1; Ezek. 1:1, 1 John 1:51; Acts 7:56; 10:11

Holy Spirit descends

- John 1:31-34; Luke 4:1, 14-15, 18-19; Acts 10:37-38

"You are my Beloved Son; with YOU I am well pleased"

- Isa. 42:1; Col 1:15-20; Heb 1:1-3

From the episode of Jesus' baptism, anointing and affirming love of the Father we can find that we too are called to orient and commit ourselves to God's purposes, we will be empowered to live it out through the power of the Holy Spirit and are called into the very same relationship Jesus had with the Father.

Jude 1:1 – "To those who are called, beloved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ"

