1. The law shows the Israelites how to live life well.

Deut. 4:1-3, 5:7-21

If we were selfish correctly and fully, we would want to live our life according to God's plan.

2. The law sets the Israelites apart as a holy people.

Deut 4:6-8, 6:4-5, 15:1-18; Mt. 5:21-22, 5:27-28, 5:43-44; 1 Pet. 2:9; John 13:25

Jesus preached on the law to remind modern believers we are to be set apart in how we love others.

Jesus restated The Shema to remind modern believers we are to be set apart in how we love God.

3. The law highlights the Israelites need for a Messiah.

Deut. 31:20-21, 30:6; Jer. 31:1-30, Ezek. 36:22-38; Rom. 3:19-26, 6:23

Our failures show us that we need a better way.
