

“Who’s coming to dinner?” - Luke 14:15-24

Only those who can humble their heart and put aside their excuses will find themselves enjoying the Kingdom Feast with Christ!

Many Are Invited To The Great Kingdom Banquet

- Luke 14:15-17

Many Are The Excuses Made By The Proud

- Luke 14:18-20
1. The Investor’s Excuse
 2. The Rich Man’s Excuse
 3. The Lover’s Excuse
 - John 10:9, 14; 17:3

Question: Ask the Lord if any of these excuses have seeped into your heart and keep you from responding to his call to follow?

Those Who Humble Their Heart Will Dine With Christ

- Luke 14:21-24, Luke 13:30; 14:11, 13; 15:2;
1. The Poor person’s humility
 2. The Crippled person’s humility
 3. The Blind person’s humility
 4. The Lame person’s humility

Questions: How do you need to humble your heart so that you can respond to Christ’s invitation and enjoy the appetizers of the Kingdom?

“Who’s coming to dinner?” - Luke 14:15-24

Only those who can humble their heart and put aside their excuses will find themselves enjoying the Kingdom Feast with Christ!

Many Are Invited To The Great Kingdom Banquet

- Luke 14:15-17

Many Are The Excuses Made By The Proud

- Luke 14:18-20
1. The Investor’s Excuse
 2. The Rich Man’s Excuse
 3. The Lover’s Excuse
 - John 10:9, 14; 17:3

Question: Ask the Lord if any of these excuses have seeped into your heart and keep you from responding to his call to follow?

Those Who Humble Their Heart Will Dine With Christ

- Luke 14:21-24, Luke 13:30; 14:11, 13; 15:2;
1. The Poor person’s humility
 2. The Crippled person’s humility
 3. The Blind person’s humility
 4. The Lame person’s humility

Questions: How do you need to humble your heart so that you can respond to Christ’s invitation and enjoy the appetizers of the Kingdom?