How To Pray: Upward. Inward. Outward

Questions to Ask yourself and God while reading the Bible:

I. UPWARD – Prayer is Devotional

What am I learning about God in this passage?

How does this passage help me enter his presence?

What troubles my heart that I need to lament upwards?

- Lord, I praise you that you are _____.
- Lord, I thank you for _____.
- Lord, help my mind and heart be in agreement with what you are showing me.

II. INWARD - Prayer is Transformational

What am I learning from this passage about myself, those close to me, or my church?

Where does this passage speak into my life/soul and how will I respond in prayer?

- Lord, I come to you asking, seeking, and knocking for ___?
- Lord, I regret _____ and ask for forgiveness?
- Lord, what do you want to show me or say to me?
- Lord, what is your will for me in this situation and what do I need to do?

III. OUTWARD - Prayer is Missional

What am I learning from this passage concerning others? How does this passage call me to intercede for them?

- As the Lord lays someone on your heart pray for BOB (Burden, Opportunities, and Boldness)
- Lord, who are you calling me to stand in the gap with prayer? How do I need to battle the enemy on their behalf?
- Lord, what specifically do you want me to pray for and do this week?
