

“Behold, I Am Making All Things New” - Revelation

Intro. This is your story; this is my story. This is the greatest story ever told; but most of all this is God’s Story.

Genesis Is The Story Of Creation And The Home We Lost

1. God’s vision is to be with us – Genesis 1-2
2. We reject God’s vision and lose the Garden! - Genesis 3

Revelation Is A Poetic Portrayal Of Heaven & Earth

1. Revelation has prophetic words filled with sounds, images, and numbers
 - Revelation 1:1-3, 4-8, 19
 - The words are more than predictive, but words to reveal and inspire God’s presence in our everyday life!
2. A Triumphant Christ Speaks To Seven Churches – Rev. 2-3
3. God is on his throne and heaven is filled with worship – Rev. 4-5
 - The act of worship gives us proper focus
4. A Victorious Christ and his church prevail against Satan and his adversaries – Rev. 6-20
 - Christ on a white horse conquers the horseman of war, famine, and sickness unto death.
 - Jesus returns and Satan the deceiver is forever removed from us!
 - Genesis 3:13, Revelation 20:8-10
