

Title: Lord, Teach Us To Pray Jerry Disch 8-4-24

Text: Luke 11:1-8

1. The Request “Lord Teach us to pray”...

Luke 11:1-4

2. The Parable

Luke 11: 5-8

A friend, a host, sleeper

Middle Eastern and Asian cultures are more concerned with Shame and Honor

“persistence: anaideia; shamelessness , boldness

Up until 12 century ‘anaideia’ meant; Avoidance of shame/ dishonor

NIV commentary on New Testament in the book of Luke uses ‘to avoid dishonor’

Two truths about prayer Jesus is teaching in this Parable:

1. The nature of God. God has integrity and will not violate it

2. Assurance for man. ‘How much more can one rest assured taking our requests to God. Matt 6:7, I Jn 5:14-15, Heb 4:16

3. Further instructions on prayer

Luke 11 9-10. Keep on asking, keep on seeking, keep on knocking

Luke 11:11-13. He will give good gifts to His Children. (Matt 7:7)

Summary : This parable tells of a sleeping neighbor who will indeed preserve his honor and grant the host’s request and more. Even so, man before God has much more reason to rest assured that his requests will be granted.

Title: Lord, Teach Us To Pray Jerry Disch 8-4-24

Text: Luke 11:1-8

1. The Request “Lord Teach us to pray”...

Luke 11:1-4

2. The Parable

Luke 11: 5-8

A friend, a host, sleeper

Middle Eastern and Asian cultures are more concerned with Shame and Honor

“persistence: anaideia; shamelessness , boldness

Up until 12 century ‘anaideia’ meant; Avoidance of shame/ dishonor

NIV commentary on New Testament in the book of Luke uses ‘to avoid dishonor’

Two truths about prayer Jesus is teaching in this Parable:

1. The nature of God. God has integrity and will not violate it

2. Assurance for man. ‘How much more can one rest assured taking our requests to God. Matt 6:7, I Jn 5:14-15, Heb 4:16

3. Further instructions on prayer

Luke 11 9-10. Keep on asking, keep on seeking, keep on knocking

Luke 11:11-13. He will give good gifts to His Children. (Matt 7:7)

Summary : This parable tells of a sleeping neighbor who will indeed preserve his honor and grant the host’s request and more. Even so, man before God has much more reason to rest assured that his requests will be granted.