

“He Has Risen, He Is Not Here” – Mark 16:1-8

A crucified Jesus is not in the tomb. What does this mean and what will you do because of it?

“You Seek Jesus Of Nazareth” – Mark 16:1-6

- Mark 16a; 1:1
- The Pre-Resurrected Jesus is someone we like and feel safe around.

“Who Was Crucified” – Mark 16:6

- Mark 16:6b; 8:29-32
- The Crucified Jesus is to be remembered and grieved.

“He has risen, he is not here” – Mark 16:6-8

- Mark 16:6c; 1:1; 15:39
 - The Post-Resurrected Jesus Christ, the Son of God is to be feared and loved!!!
 - They were alarmed, fled from the tomb, trembling and astonishment seized them, said nothing for there were afraid – Why? What had changed for them?
1. Jesus Rises with unmistakable power
 2. Jesus Rules with absolute authority
 3. Jesus Comes to us with such pure faithful love
 4. Jesus’ Resurrected Life becomes the death of our old life
 - Mark 8:34-37

Devotion:

1. How would your life look different if you absolutely trusted Jesus’ power and his love for you? Or to put it differently, how would your life look different if you didn’t believe in a resurrected Jesus?
2. A resurrected Jesus Christ, the Son of God wants to be our Savior and Lord in all areas of our lives. Will you say yes to him?

Communion: Mark 14:22-25

“He Has Risen, He Is Not Here” – Mark 16:1-8

A crucified Jesus is not in the tomb. What does this mean and what will you do because of it?

“You Seek Jesus Of Nazareth” – Mark 16:1-6

- Mark 16a; 1:1
- The Pre-Resurrected Jesus is someone we like and feel safe around.

“Who Was Crucified” – Mark 16:6

- Mark 16:6b; 8:29-32
- The Crucified Jesus is to be remembered and grieved.

“He has risen, he is not here” – Mark 16:6-8

- Mark 16:6c; 1:1; 15:39
 - The Post-Resurrected Jesus Christ, the Son of God is to be feared and loved!!!
 - They were alarmed, fled from the tomb, trembling and astonishment seized them, said nothing for there were afraid – Why? What had changed for them?
1. Jesus Rises with unmistakable power
 2. Jesus Rules with absolute authority
 3. Jesus Comes to us with such pure faithful love
 4. Jesus’ Resurrected Life becomes the death of our old life
 - Mark 8:34-37

Devotion:

1. How would your life look different if you absolutely trusted Jesus’ power and his love for you? Or to put it differently, how would your life look different if you didn’t believe in a resurrected Jesus?
2. A resurrected Jesus Christ, the Son of God wants to be our Savior and Lord in all areas of our lives. Will you say yes to him?

Communion: Mark 14:22-25