

Sermon Text: Ruth 4:1-12

Frame of Reference: Could you have profound loyal love for a Moabite?

Background: Tension and hostility between Hebrews and Moabites.

Key Takeaways

First – Living above – and with- complicated histories.

- Service to others and dedicate to God were the key.

Second – Understand the values of your community.

- Can make you a better participant / change agent

Question: Tell the truth, or shepherd toward it?

Third – A story about making outsiders, insiders.

- The extravagant blessing of the Elders.
- Nehemiah would not have gone so far (Nehemiah 13:23).

Question: Does our good justify where we miss the mark elsewhere?

Fourth – A story foreshadowing universal salvation (available to all)

- A book for Hebrews and Gentiles
- Perhaps connects to Acts 10 with Cornelius.

Fifth – Not to worry about your origin story...or others.

Key Idea: Develop your pathway, rightly...in God, and with him write a fresh story.

Sermon Text: Ruth 4:1-12

Frame of Reference: Could you have profound loyal love for a Moabite?

Background: Tension and hostility between Hebrews and Moabites.

Key Takeaways

First – Living above – and with- complicated histories.

- Service to others and dedicate to God were the key.

Second – Understand the values of your community.

- Can make you a better participant / change agent

Question: Tell the truth, or shepherd toward it?

Third – A story about making outsiders, insiders.

- The extravagant blessing of the Elders.
- Nehemiah would not have gone so far (Nehemiah 13:23).

Question: Does our good justify where we miss the mark elsewhere?

Fourth – A story foreshadowing universal salvation (available to all)

- A book for Hebrews and Gentiles
- Perhaps connects to Acts 10 with Cornelius.

Fifth – Not to worry about your origin story...or others.

Key Idea: Develop your pathway, rightly...in God, and with him write a fresh story.